1. Obey the authority and follow the instructions of your ngành's Huynh Truongs, Doan Truong and Cha Tuyen Uy. Show respect and be polite toward all those older than you since they replace the role of your parents when you are not at home. 2. Make words such as: "please", "thank you", "may I help?", "you are welcome", "yes", "no", "I don't understand" and "I'm sorry" part of your regular speech. "Thưa", "ạ", "có" and "vâng" are even better. Do not use words such as: "huh?", "yeah", "uh huh", "OK", "whatever", "sure" and "hmmmm?" No inappropriate body sounds during any activities, especially Mass (eg, burping, yelling, yawning, flatulating, clicking tongue, humming to self).
3. Be on time, have good attendance, participate in all activities created by the TNTT Leadership Team and all church/community's activities requested by the Community Leadership Team, and demonstrate and exemplify a good model of Christian character for those younger than you by living out the Gifts of the Holy Spirit and the spiritual and corporeal works of mercy.
