Remind the children that we are all one because we are all baptized by the Holy Spirit into the Church. In remembrance of our Baptism, instruct the children to write Father on one section, Son on the next section, and Holy Spirit on the remaining section. Instruct the children to turn the cards over and write their names in each of the three sections, large enough to be read easily. Encourage the children to select their favorite colors and decorate around their names in a way that expresses their individuality. (For example, symbols of

Distribute clear tape and instruct the children to tape the triangle blocks closed. Invite the children to come and build the Church by fitting the blocks together. Provide either folded-over tape or double-sided tape to keep the structure together. When the children have finished, encourage them to talk about what they have built, what it looks like, what it means, and how they feel to be a part of it. Please review class textbook content from the following link (Control Click) https://www.olphriverside.org/giao-ly-song-ngu%cc%83/
